They had on board the Remains of four Spaniſh Regiments, called de la Reine, de Caſtille, d'Arragon, and the Fuſileers de Catalogne, which four Regiments did not amount to above 2800 Men, who were in a very bad Condition, and the Officers without Equipage.

Amſterdam, Feb. 14, *N. A great Number of the Militia of France was every Day coming into Bruſſels; and they inliſted many Peaſant Boys, but moſt of them deſerted. The States of Hainault were forced to take up Money at Intereſt to furniſh the Contributions demanded of them. Marſhal Saxe was not expected in Brabant till after the Marriage of the Dauphineſs. An Ordonnance has been publiſhed by the French Generals, forbidding all Perſons in the conquer'd Country to remove above four Leagues from their own Houſes.
